

Ten Little Soldiers

Ten little soldiers standing in a row;
(fingers standing up in a row)

They bow to the captain way down low.
(fingers bent forward)

They stand up straight all ready to fight,
And they march to the left and they arch to the right.
(move fingers to left, then right)

Along comes a man with a great big gun,
(index fingers come from behind back)

You should see those soldiers run, run, run.
(hands disappear behind back)
