

One Little Child

Action Poem

One little child stands up,
One little child turns around,
One little child claps his hands,
And one little child sits down.

(Two, three, four, etc. substituted for one. Children take turns in standing. May be one in each row.)

